FIVE DISABLING ACCIDENTS during September brought our total for 1954 to 17 compared to 20 at this time last year. The two most recent were not judged to be serious but later required time loss because of necessary treatment. Ralph Travis, Napkin, on Sept. 27, lacerated the heel of his left hand, the area later requiring a skin graft. On Sept. 15, Cyrus Watson, #1 General Maintenance, received steam burns on his legs. Infection developed and the doctor ordered him to stay off his feet. These five accidents make September the most unfortunate month this year for our safety record.

WE EXTEND our deep sympathy to families of our people who recently passed away.

GUY COWAN, retired associate who completed 24 years of service in 1947, leaves two sons and a daughter who are CZ employees, Glen Cowan, Central Research, Clinton Cowan, Electrical department, and Millicent Kirkpatrick, Office.

Services were held last week for LUDWIG NIELSEN who retired in 1947 with 25 years of mill service.

CHARLES WALLACE, retired in 1945, brother of Vern Wallace, paper machines, passed away Monday evening. Funeral services were held Wednesday.

GOLA FINE, retired from #1 Finishing in 1950, after 31 years of service, passed away Tuesday morning. Services will be held at Swank's Memorial Chapel at 2 o'clock on Saturday. His son, Dean Fine, works with the Yard crew.

LT. FRED HOLMBERG, Converting Plant, lost his life last week when his navy jet fighter plane crashed at sea as he was approaching his ship, the U.S.S. Yorktown, for a landing off the Chinese coast near Formosa. He was recalled to active duty in the naval air reserve in March 1952 and had been awarded two air medals and five gold stars for distinguished service in the Korean campaign. A sister, Joan Schlegel, is employed in #2 Finishing. A memorial service will be held at Stollers chapel Saturday at 2 P.M.

RETIRED ASSOCIATES and their wives and husbands, 230 persons, gathered at the Inn Thursday evening for a dinner jointly sponsored by Local 100, Local 130, and management. Life membership cards were presented by the unions to those of their members recently retired. Oscar Robertson, Papermakers' president, was master of ceremonies. During group singing led by Sam Runyan, several interesting facts were learned about the old-timers there. O. B. Koplin is the oldest retired associate - 89 in February. Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Fountain were the oldest couple present - both 86. Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Rice had been married longest, 58 years. Nine couples had been married more than 50 years; two couples, less than six months. John Sherman, international vice president for the Pulp and Sulfite union, and John Bailey, Kalamazoo, Michigan, third international vice president of the Papermakers, spoke briefly. Mr. Bailey, in extending his congratulations, said that as far as he knew, such an occasion was unique in the paper industry and was outstanding for its atmosphere of friendliness and sincerity.
